WORK EXPERIENCE

---

Riiid Labs, Seattle, WA

August 2021 – Present

Product Manager

- Conduct market research, competitor analysis, and user interviews to define project goals and high level requirements.
- Define personas, project roadmap, and detailed requirements to create a backlog of user stories for development.
- Collaborate with designers and engineers to produce wireframes, A/B testing strategies, and technical specifications.
- Lead the development process from building the application to planning its go-to-market and maintenance strategies.

Selected Project Experience

- Launched a new admin management platform for a B2B standardized test mobile app, enabling the client to manage user access, create paywall bypass codes, and download analytics reports on demand.
- Standardized Riiid Lab's product success analysis workflow by defining KPIs and associated metadata to send from Riiid's products to Amplitude and creating a master dashboard to track user, performance, and revenue data.
- Leading the UX and go-to-market strategies for Riiid Lab's math problem scanner app; recently launched the newest push notifications feature, now switching focus to enhancing the AI answer search flow and chat feature.

Adobe Inc., San Francisco, CA

July 2019 – August 2021

Business Consultant & Product Owner

- Defined project roadmap and feature requirements for large enterprise engagements totalling over $30+ million.
- Designed site architecture, assets taxonomy, and metadata properties that optimize content search and management.
- Facilitated cross-functional scrum ceremonies such as sprint planning, internal testing, UAT, and client demos.
- Awarded Consultant of the Quarter, a distinction received by 12 people across the Professional Services organization.

Selected Project Experience

- Developed a customized AEM platform for a telecommunications client, delivering over 50 UI components, full eCommerce integration, and enhanced assets taxonomy that streamlines the marketing materials creation process.
- Launched over 25 websites across different departments for a state government client, in addition to a new branding guide and a library of over 40 drag and drop UI components that enable efficient, code-free content updates.
- Customized AEM to be a headless content management system for a multi-billion mass media corporation to optimally store and deliver content to different streaming and webpage services.

Penn Design, Philadelphia, PA

September 2016 – May 2019

Digital Designer
